

Questions for “Mississippi Succeeds” Listening Tour

The Mississippi Department of Education seeks public feedback on the following questions. Responses will be incorporated by the MDE into its plan for complying with the new federal K-12 education law, Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). Feedback should be emailed to MSucceeds@mdek12.org.

What does a successful student look like?

What does a successful school look like?

What does a successful district look like?

Teacher & Leader Quality

What does an effective teacher look like?

What does an effective school leader look like?

Is experience a measure of effectiveness?

Is licensure a measure of effectiveness?

School & District Report Cards

What information currently helps you know if your student is successful?

What information currently helps you know if your school is successful?

What information currently helps you know if your district is successful?

What other information would help you know if your student is successful?

What other information would help you know if your school is successful?

What other information would help you know if your district is successful?

School Improvement Supports

What other resources or supports do families need to help students succeed in school?

In what ways would you like to see low-performing schools supported by the MDE?

Accountability

Other than state test scores, what indicators of school quality should be considered in school ratings?