

Student Performance in Mississippi: Proficiency Rates for Poor and Non-poor Students in C Districts Compared to Poor and Non-poor Students in A and B Districts

Research shows consistently that children growing up in poverty tend to achieve at lower levels than their non-poor peers. The same research shows that, with additional resources, students in economically disadvantaged households can reach the same levels of academic success as more affluent students.

In every state, including Mississippi, economically disadvantaged students, on average, score lower on standardized tests than do children who are not economically disadvantaged. Additionally, research shows that economically disadvantaged children benefit academically from being in classrooms with students who are not in low-income families – which puts students (and teachers) in school districts with extremely high rates of poverty at a further disadvantage.

Most of Mississippi's C-rated school districts have significantly higher poverty rates than do our state's districts rated A and B. This begs the question: How would our C districts measure up if all districts had similar levels of poverty? A comparison of each district's proficiency rate among only economically disadvantaged students will give us some insight into this issue (though it does not control for the lack of benefit from higher-income classmates). This study is based on 2012-2013 state test results, the most recent year for which data are available by subgroup, and 2013 school district accountability ratings. Poverty in Mississippi Schools

An economically disadvantaged student is defined as one who is eligible for free or reduced-price meals under the National School Lunch and Child Nutrition Program. The following statistics are from 2010-2011, the most recent school year for which poverty data are available. (Source: Kids Count Data Center)

70% of all public school students in Mississippi are eligible for free or reduced-price lunch; 63% are eligible for free lunch (family of four making less than $29,000).

All of the 19 school districts rated A are below the state average in percent of students eligible for free or reduced-price lunch.

Of Mississippi's 42 school districts rated B:

- 17 districts (41% of all B districts) meet or exceed the state average of 70% or more of students qualifying for free or reduced-price lunch.

- 12 districts (29% of all B districts) meet or exceed the state average of 63% or more of students qualifying for free lunch.

Of Mississippi's 37 districts rated C:

- 34 districts (92% of all C districts) meet or exceed the state average of 70% or more of students qualifying for free or reduced lunch.
- 33 districts (89% of all C districts) meet or exceed the state average of 63% or more of students qualifying for free lunch.

Part 1 of this study compares the proficiency rates on state tests in language and math of economically disadvantaged students in districts rated C to those of economically disadvantaged students in districts rated A and B. See Part 2 for a comparison of the proficiency rates on state tests in language and math of non-poor students in districts rated C to those of non-poor students in districts rated A and B.

Part 1

Proficiency Rates for Economically Disadvantaged Students in C Districts Compared to Economically Disadvantaged Students in A and B Districts

In every grade and subject, the majority of Mississippi's C-rated districts (61% or more) achieved proficiency rates for economically disadvantaged students that were equal to or better than the proficiency rates of economically disadvantaged students in some Mississippi districts rated A and/or B.

The following is a breakdown by grade and subject of the percent of C-rated districts whose economically disadvantaged students outperformed at least some districts rated A or B:

Third-Grade Language:

32% of C districts performed as well as or better than at least two A districts:

Baldwyn, East Tallahatchie, Hinds County, Holly Springs, Houston, Kemper County, Lawrence County, Louisville, Marion County, Mound Bayou, Oktibbeha County, South Panola

100% of C districts performed as well as or better than at least one B district:

Attala County, Baldwyn, Benoit, Benton County, Clay County, Cleveland, Coffeerville, Covington County, East Tallahatchie, Forest City, Greene County, Hattiesburg, Hinds County, Hollandale, Holly Springs, Houston, Jefferson Davis County, Kemper County, Laurel, Lawrence County, Lee County, Leland, Louisville, Marion County, Marshall County, Mound Bayou, Oktibbeha County, Perry County, Philadelphia, Picayune, Quitman, Quitman County, South Panola, Starkville, Walthall County, Wayne County, Yazoo County

Third-Grade Math:

30% of C districts performed as well as or better than at least one A district:

Baldwyn, Coffeerville, Forest City, Hinds County, Holly Springs, Houston, Lawrence County, Lee County, Louisville, Marion County, South Panola

84% of C districts performed as well as or better than at least one B district:

Baldwyn, Clay County, Cleveland, Coffeerville, Covington County, East Tallahatchie, Forest City, Greene County, Hattiesburg, Hinds County, Hollandale, Holly Springs, Houston, Jefferson Davis County, Kemper County, Laurel, Lawrence County, Lee County, Leland, Louisville, Marion County, Marshall County, Mound Bayou, Oktibbeha County, Picayune, Quitman, Quitman County, South Panola, Starkville, Wayne County, Yazoo County

Fourth-Grade Language:

27% of C districts performed as well as or better than at least two A districts:

Baldwyn, Cleveland, East Tallahatchie, Greene County, Hollandale, Houston, Kemper County, Marion County, Philadelphia, Quitman County

97% of C districts performed as well as or better than at least one B district:

Attala County, Baldwin, Benoit, Benton County, Cleveland, Coffeeville, Covington County, East Tallahatchie, Forest City, Greene County, Hattiesburg, Hinds County, Hollandale, Holly Springs, Houston, Jefferson Davis County, Kemper County, Laurel, Lawrence County, Lee County, Leland, Louisville, Marion County, Marshall County, Mound Bayou, Oktibbeha County, Perry County, Philadelphia, Picayune, Quitman, Quitman County, South Panola, Starkville, Walthall County, Wayne County, Yazoo County

Fourth-Grade Math:

76% of C districts performed as well as or better than at least one A district:

Attala County, Baldwin, Benoit, Clay County, Cleveland, Covington County, East Tallahatchie, Greene County, Hattiesburg, Hinds County, Hollandale, Houston, Jefferson Davis County, Kemper County, Laurel, Lawrence County, Lee County, Louisville, Marion County, Marshall County, Mound Bayou, Oktibbeha County, Philadelphia, Quitman, Quitman County, Starkville, Wayne County, Yazoo County

95% of C districts performed better than at least three B districts:

Attala County, Baldwin, Benoit, Benton County, Clay County, Cleveland, Coffeeville, Covington County, East Tallahatchie, Forest City, Greene County, Hattiesburg, Hinds County, Hollandale, Houston, Jefferson Davis County, Kemper County, Laurel, Lawrence County, Lee County, Leland, Louisville, Marion County, Marshall County, Mound Bayou, Oktibbeha County, Perry County, Philadelphia, Picayune, Quitman, Quitman County, South Panola, Starkville, Wayne County, Yazoo County

Fifth-Grade Language:

86% of C districts performed as well as or better than at least one A district:

Attala County, Baldwin, Benton County, Clay County, Cleveland, Covington County, East Tallahatchie, Greene County, Hattiesburg, Hinds County, Hollandale, Holly Springs, Houston, Jefferson Davis County, Kemper County, Laurel, Lawrence County, Lee County, Louisville, Marion County, Marshall County, Mound Bayou, Oktibbeha County, Perry County, Philadelphia, Picayune, Quitman, Quitman County, South Panola, Starkville, Wayne County, Yazoo County

In 100% of C districts, economically disadvantaged students outperformed their peers in at least one A district in at least one grade and subject out of a possible 12.

In 100% of C districts, economically disadvantaged students outperformed their peers in at least one B district in at least six grades and subjects out of a possible 12.

Part 2

Proficiency Rates for Non-poor Students in C Districts Compared to Non-poor Students in A and B Districts

Achievement among non-poor students in Mississippi's C districts compared to non-poor students in A and B districts. Data is not reported when the percent of students in a given category is low enough to potentially identify individual students. Therefore, some districts did not have data reported in this category in some or all grades.

In every grade and subject for which data is available, the majority of Mississippi's C-rated districts (65% or more) had a proficiency rate for students who are non-poor that was equal to or better than some Mississippi districts rated A and/or B.

The following is a breakdown by grade and subject of the percent of Mississippi's C-rated districts whose non-poor students outperformed similar students in at least some districts rated A or B:

Third-Grade Language:

61% of C districts performed better than at least one A district:
